SEEK THE PRACTICAL IN COURSE OF STUDY

Pamphlet Being Sent Out by State Superintendent Nelson Following Recent Convention.

Issuing from the office of State Superintendent Nelson, a pamphlet has been sent to all principals in schools outside of cities of the first and second classes, defining the new course study to be followed as outlined by the convention of the county sapetheans ents of the state, held in Salt Land in April.

In this revised schedule of studies, the committee gives more attention to manual training and domestic science. A course in agriculture is provided for ill grammar schools in the eighth grade Local geography and the study of nature are also given as a part of the course in the grades up to and including the grammar schools. In relation to the study of literature, the recommendation is made for further development of the grades.

of the child's sense of humor.

The elimination of non-essentials is nother radical change included in the new courses and all impractical features are to be submerged and the "require-ment of more thorough and intensive work on the minimum of subject mat-

studies of local history and local industry are included with the view to giving the student a thorough knowledge of the community in which he lives, holding to the belief that he will learn more rapidly and more thoroughly in general lines of study by having a definite standard by which to gage general occurrences, general conditions and situations.

The work of revising the course of study has been done by a committee of six, appointed by the convention of susix, appointed by the convention of superintendents, consisting of the following educators: A. C. Nelson, state superintendent of schools; G. N. Child, supervisor of the grammar grades of Salt Lake schools; D. C. Woodward, superintendent Emery county schools; R. V. Larson, superintendent Cache county schools; Joseph Finlinson, superintendent Millard county schools; Prof. Mosiah Hall of the University of Utah.

SLAUGHTERERS PROTEST.

Do Not Take Kindly to Paying for Inspection.

Plans of the city health department to curtail expenses were protested before the sanitation committee last night, when representatives of the Murray Meat & Livestock company appeared before that body to oppose the proposition to throw half the expense of inspection on the packing conerns. This cost amounts to $90 month and of this amount, the city has agreed, according to the packers, to pay one-half. They believe the city should bear the entire expense, basing this belief on the fact that they pay a this belief on the fact that they pay a merchant's license for doing business within the city.

No definite action was taken other than the claim of the committee was set up that the city could compet the packers to pay the entire expense if it felt so disposed. The packers will take the matter up with the council direct.

After having been dragged out periodically for the past six years, the electrical ordinance was dragged out, dusted off and looked over again. The dusted off and looked over again. The committee of the whole will take the next look at the remains. Chief of Police Barlow's recommendation that the saloon license of Nick La nont, for 169 west South Temple, be evoked, will be taken up Monday

The park commission will get no al lowance from the council, not until after the first of the year at least. This recommendation of the committee on public grounds and waterways was for $2.500 for equipment of a playground and $6,000 to cover the short appropriation for the park board's work.

The county attorney will be instructed to prosecute H. M. Burton, a delivery driver, who ran over Chester Stirling, a member of the city's white wing brigade.

The petition of Z. C. M. I, that it be allowed to illuminate the front of the new South Temple place, will go to the council with the recommendation of the engineering committee that they be allowed to do so. They ask for per-mission to install lights conforming with those in front of the Main street

FOOD OFFICERS RETURN.

Commissioner Hansen and Chemist Harms Pleased With Trip.

State Food Commissioner Willard Hansen, Jr., and State Chemist Herman Harms returned Thursday evening from their trip to New Orleans in attendance on the convention of National Food and Dairy commissioners. While away, the Utah officials stopped over in St. Louis to inspect candy factories, bakeries and other establishments, and in consequence of their investigations feel warranted in claiming that saniin consequence of their livestigations feel warranted in claiming that sanitary conditions in Utah compare favorably with those obtaining elsewhere. The convention adopted resolutions recommending uniformity in sanitary laws between the different states as far as possible, which will prove a boon to manufacturers as well as to the various state boards. The convention also resolved in favor of separating food matters from politics, and in favor of expert officials who are not to be removed every time there is a change in the political complexion of a state government; also, in favor of a national weight and measure law, with provisions for proper branding.

The Utah officials, while in New Orleans, secured a promise from B. H.

The Utah officials, while in New Orleans, secured a promise from B. H. Rawl, chief of the dairy bureau of the department of agriculture, to address the Utah dairymen in Salt Lake early in January. This he will be the better able to do, as he will then be en route east from California, where he is to address a similar body.

SAYS HE WAS ROBBED.

John D. Romero, aged 40 years, a laborer, claims to the police that he was deprived of all his worldly possessions amounting to $20 by C. Tillmer, a fellow employe. Romero is now at the city emergency hospital where he has contracted a serious illness. Romero alleges that he and Till-mer secured a room together at the Cullen hotel and next day Tillmer disappeared with Romero's money.

DRUGGED AND ROBBED.

Claiming that he had been drugged and robbed, John Burns, aged 22 years, was picked up last night about 10 o'clock on Seventh East between Fourth and Fifth South streets by Policeman Hinton in a semi-conscious condition, He was removed to the city emergency hospital. Burns boarded a Wandamere car and alighted near Fifth South with another man. After that he claims he remembers nothing. While Burns's condition is not serious, the police will thoroughly investigate the case after Burns fully recovers
